Using SIAM's Online Prize Portal

- Navigate among the nominations from within a nomination or return to the list, using the buttons on the Evaluation Form.

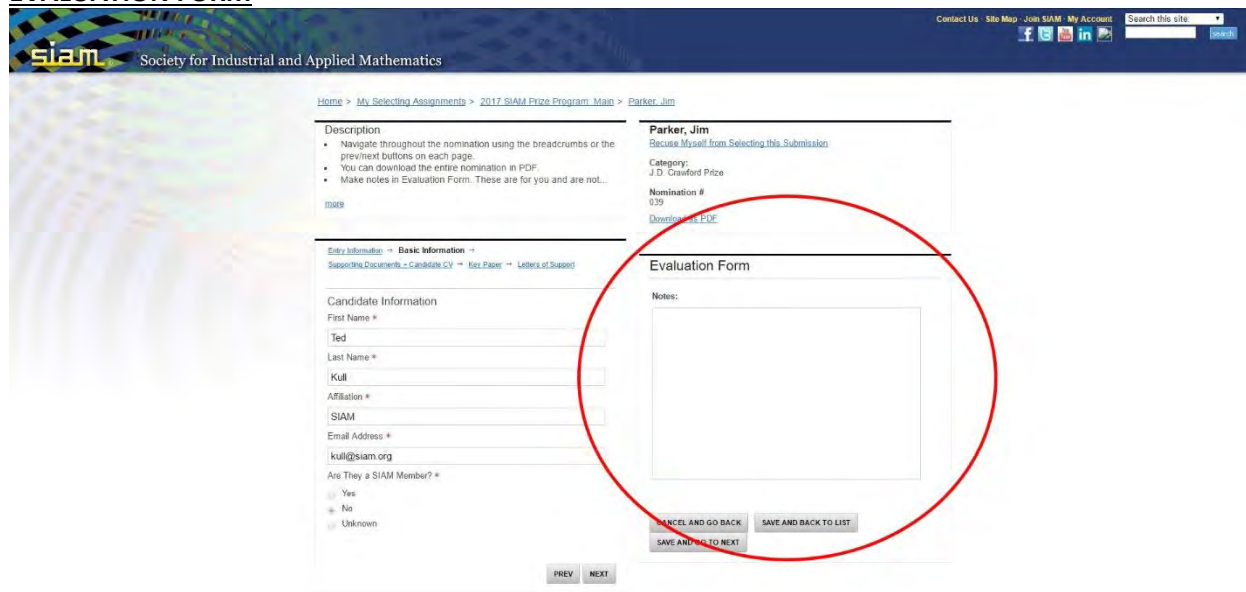

The screenshot shows the 'Evaluation Form' for nomination #039 by Parker, Jim. The form includes a 'Description' section with instructions, a 'Candidate Information' section with fields for name, affiliation, and email, and a 'Notes' section. At the bottom of the form, three buttons are visible: 'CANCEL AND GO BACK', 'SAVE AND BACK TO LIST', and 'SAVE AND GO TO NEXT'. These buttons are circled in red.

- Once you have saved a nomination, its status will show as "viewed" in the list on the Main page.

The screenshot shows the 'Main' page of the SIAM Online Prize Portal. It displays a list of nominations with columns for nomination name, category, and status. The first nomination, 'Parker, Jim' (Nomination # 039), has a status of 'Viewed', which is circled in red. Other nominations include 'Littleton, Joanna' (Nomination # 037 and # 053) and 'Imperatrice, Annie' (Nomination # 059). A 'Refine your search' sidebar is visible on the right, and a 'Download all to PDF' link is at the bottom.

EVALUATION FORM

- You can make notes in the Evaluation Form. These are for you and are not seen by the rest of the committee.
- Your notes form remains the same on every page of the nomination. You can edit and delete them.
- Save your notes for reference or cancel them before leaving the nomination.
- 'Cancel and go back' erases your notes.
- Save your notes and move back to the list or on to the next nominations.
- A green "success" message indicates you have successfully saved the page before you moved.

PDFs

- You can download all nominations at once on the 2017 SIAM Prize Program: Main Page.

Using SIAM's Online Prize Portal

- You can download nominations 1 at a time on each individual nomination page.

- Note - if you plan to print, you will need to click on the Download File links within each nomination pdf to open individual Nomination Letters, Candidate CVs, and Letters of Support.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST AND RECUSAL OF NOMINATIONS

- If you have a conflict of interest (COI), you can recuse yourself from a nomination.
- You will be prompted to explain your reason for recusal before you can submit it.
- Note: Recusing yourself from a nomination will result in removing the nomination from your list of nominations on the Prize Portal.

COMMITTEE DISCUSSION

- The portal provides a place to access the nominations.
- Use the Notes section of the Evaluation Form as a personal organizational tool.
- The committee chair will determine the committee's procedures for reviewing, ranking, rating, and making the final selection of the prize recipient.
- Discussion should be done in email or by phone.
